on the 2nd Thursday of each month at our Sight Centre

Who we are and what we do

At Wiltshire Sight, we believe that we can make a real difference to your life. We do this by providing you with the opportunity to use various tools, by giving you access to information and support and by enabling you with lifelong learning skills. All of which will support you to continue living independently.

Wiltshire Sight receives no Government funding. If you've found this leaflet useful, please consider making a donation to support our work.
