Music Key Project Athens, Greece

23rd June to the 1st July 2018

Exciting Opportunity!!

Are you 18-30 years old and interested in:

- Music
- Travel
- Meeting new people
- Cultural and creative exchange
- Can you sing? (Or at least hold a tune!)

Then we would like to hear from you.

Look are taking part in a pan-European music project in Athens, Greece. Look has been invited to send three visually impaired and two fully sighted people to participate in this youth exchange programme.

The Music Key project is hosted by The Centre for the Education and rehabilitation for the Blind in Athens. It is going to be full of music, choir singing, intercultural events and many visits to important locations of the city of Athens.

Travel expenses, a daily allowance, accommodation and mobility support will be provided.

To apply you must have a basic knowledge of the English language, a competent singing voice, good teamwork skills and an interest in other cultures.

If you would like to be considered for this fabulous opportunity or have any further questions, please contact us on info@look-uk.org. You will be required to fill in an application form (which we can assist with over the phone if you like), send us a short audio sample of your singing and attend a brief skype or phone interview.

Applications are now open.

Applications close at midday on the 3/1/2018
